

Science - Year 3 - Plants

Concept: Ecosystems – What all living things need and starting to understand how they depend on each other.

Vocabulary

carbon dioxide: a gas produced naturally by animals breathing and by burning coal and oil germinate: when a new plant begins to grow from a seed or bulb seed dispersal: when seeds get moved away from the original plant pollination: when pollen grains travel from the male part of one plant to the female part of another

Transpiration

How water travels through a plant

The life cycle of a flowering plant

